Degree Path: B.A. in Church Leadership – Church Revitalization

College of Bible and Church Ministries

OVERVIEW

Are you interested in reviving a struggling church? Do you want to tackle the challenge of finding a church in need of strong leadership and a person who can guide it back to success? If this sounds like you, the SAGU B.A. in Church Leadership-Church Revitalization may be a great fit. In today's world, the church has fallen on hard times. According to Gallup, church attendance in America has dropped below 50% for the first time ever.* This troubling trend can be attributed to a number of factors—mainly that an increasing number of Americans no longer identify with a particular religion. With our church revitalization degree, you can play a role in battling this trend by learning how to nurse a church back to health. Unbelievers are everywhere—including your local community. This degree program can help you find those people and bring them into your church's family.

- Youth Pastor

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Church revitalization is a term used to describe efforts and measures taken to nourish a struggling church back to health. Church revitalization requires more than growing the size of your congregation—it involves a spirited effort to help the church rediscover what made it previously successful. Church revitalization also requires a renewed commitment to glorifying God and seeking His will in all church decisions. By partnering with us, you can complete a degree program capable of teaching you the skills needed to revive a church. Don't put your future or the future of your church on hold any longer. Choose the SAGU B.A. in Church Leadership-Church Revitalization program and prepare to serve others. Our program is taught by a group of esteemed experts who have years of work and educational experience. At SAGU, our professors are leaders in the fields of education and ministry—so you can feel confident in the quality of instruction that you'll receive.
