Degree Path: B.A. in Church Leadership – Spiritual Formation

College of Bible and Church Ministries

OVERVIEW

The student who has a passion for discipleship will find themselves at home in this specialization. The student will be equipped to lead the discipleship, Christian Education, and small group ministry of a church of any size. Students learn to integrate biblical truth and spiritual disciplines to develop and equip Christians of all ages.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The student will discover how to effectively lead people of all ages in discipleship with an understanding of how life stages effect how they understand themselves and God. Small group ministry receives special attention as many students organize and direct those ministries in the local church. Others serve in writing spiritual formation curriculum.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Graduates are effectively discipling people at various life stages around the globe. Small group leadership training is being done and curriculum written to help people go deeper in their relationship with Christ. A highlight of the program is the experiential nature of the curriculum. Students are led into worship and discussion experiences to give them a taste of what it is to leader others.
