Degree Path: B.A. in Ancient Studies

College of Business and Education

OVERVIEW

The purpose of the bachelor's program in Ancient Studies is to provide specialized, biblically-integrated education to students to prepare them spiritually, academically, and professionally to fill various Christian ministry roles and to provide quality educational and professional Christian service wherever needed through the world, specifically enabling them to work or to engage in advanced study in fields involving the ancient biblical world.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Ancient Studies is a narrow field, but it encompasses fascinating disciplines including archaeology and anthropology, and gives a strong foundation in fields involving history, research, project initiation and completion, in-depth study of the Bible, and other areas. It will be valuable for careers in archaeology, ministry, and history-related occupations.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

We like to offer frequent extracurricular history-related activities, such as field trips to lectures, museums, and historic/archaeological sites, and even occasional longer trips.

Students who wish to participate in an ongoing archaeological dig can take ARC 4133 and ARC 4143 whenever digs are available. Students who wish to complete an archaeology field project when no digs are currently available still have this option if they know of active digs which they can participate in. To begin such a process, Ancient Studies majors would just need to contact the program coordinator.

Nelson is one of the few schools in the nation to offer a degree in Ancient Studies, combining major studies in history, archaeology, and Bible.
