Degree Path: B.A. in Music Jazz Performance

College of Music and Communication Arts

OVERVIEW

The music performance program is designed to prepare students for music ministry within the church, to prepare students to engage in the performing industry, and to prepare students to teach in private studios or public classrooms around the world.

IMPORTANT PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS TO NOTE:

- Piano Placement Assessment is given to determine piano readiness. Students will be placed in Class Piano I, II, III, or IV depending on their individual level.
- Voice Placement Assessment is given to determine vocal readiness. Students desiring to register for private voice lessons will enroll in Class Voice and take the Voice Placement Assessment the first day of class each semester. Those who pass the VPA will be permitted to enroll in MAP 1211 Applied Voice.
- Theory Placement Assessment is given to all incoming music students to determine theory readiness. Students will register for Fundamentals of Music and take the TPA the first day of class in the fall semester. Those who pass the TPA will be permitted to enroll in MUS 1114 Music Theory I.
- All music majors are required to pass the Piano Proficiency Exam. The PPE is to be attempted at the end of the sophomore year.
- All music majors are required to pass the Proficiency Exam of their major applied area before enrolling in the upper level of applied study. Students must register for the Proficiency Exam the semester in which it is attempted.
- Each applied music student shall participate in at least one studio or one general recital each semester.
- All performance majors are required to give a Junior Recital (MAP 3200) and a Senior Recital (MAP 4000).
- All applied music students are required to enroll in MAP 1000 Recital Attendance and satisfactorily complete six semesters for graduation.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Arranger, arts administrator, choir director, church musician, composer, concert promoter, conductor, music publisher, music pastor, music teacher, performing/recording artist, private studio owner, studio musician, talent manager, touring manager, voice-over artist, worship leader, etc.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Nelson strives to present a quality music program for its students inclusive of performances, opportunities, and instruments. On April 28, 2011, Nelson was publicly awarded the status of "All Steinway School" joining an elite list of conservatories, colleges, and international schools of distinction. Students are now able to practice and perform on high quality pianos throughout their studies at the University.
